I agree with adding fruits and vegetables but I think it would be better to take away the beans and peanut butter than to lessen the amount of milk we get

I disagree with the idea of changing milk for soy or tofu milk. I like the idea of having wheat bread, tortillas, and vegetables instead of the cheese and eggs. I like the idea of also getting brown rice.

I don't like the idea of getting soy milk or Tofu, maybe vegetables is ok, but I like the way I'm getting my coupons now. I really don't want you guys to take the milk away.

I can't afford for WIC to change it to Bread or tortillas. I need for my family to have milk and eggs
that is really not affordable.

So please have the WIC checks to be the same, don't change them.

I want the WIC checks
to stay the same.

Milk, cheese, eggs and
etc. are expensive to afford and WIC helps
my family on giving us these products.

Tortillas & Bread veggies are products that I could afford for ex: tortillas = $1.99
