

United States Department of Agriculture
Food and Nutrition Service
Supplemental Food Programs Division

SOLICITATION OF NOMINATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP OF THE NATIONAL ADVISORY COUNCIL ON MATERNAL, INFANT AND FETAL NUTRITION

Vacant Position	Position Description	Term Length
State WIC Program Director	The individual responsible for implementing Federal policy guidelines and administering the WIC Program at the State level. Has operational knowledge about all aspects of WIC, including policy, management, accounting systems, and computer systems.	3 years
State CSF Program Director	The individual responsible for implementing Federal policy guidelines and administering the CSF Program at the State level. Has operational knowledge about all aspects of CSFP, including policy, grants management, accounting systems, food inventory systems, and computer systems.	3 years
State WIC Program Fiscal Director	The individual responsible for the administration and monitoring of WIC grants at the State and local levels. This includes monitoring compliance of State and local budgets and expenditures with fiscal policies and procedures.	3 years
Local WIC Program Project in a Rural Area	The individual responsible for implementing Federal and State policy guidelines and administering the WIC Program at the local level in a rural area. Has operational knowledge about all aspects of the WIC Program, including policy, grants management, accounting system, and computer systems.	3 years

Representative of an Organization Serving Migrants	Individual from an organization that either directly or indirectly provides services to migrants or advocates through legislative efforts, public education, litigation and research to improve the health and welfare of migrants.	3 years
Parent Participant in the Commodity Supplemental Food Program	Participant in CSF Program as pregnant, postpartum or breastfeeding woman, or the parent/guardian of an infant and/or child participant.	2 years
Representative of a Non-profit Public Interest Organization	An individual from an organization that serves the public interest such as a advocacy or community action group or a food bank.	3 years

Nominations are due November 8, 2013, to anne.bartholomew@fns.usda.gov; or fax to 703-305-2196 or mail to: USDA/FNS, 3101 Park Center Drive, Suite 522, Alexandria, VA 22302. Nomination forms (AD-755) are available on the FNS website at <http://www.fns.usda.gov/wic/nac/advisorycouncil.htm>, and must be completed in full an original signature is required on Form AD-755.