Dear CN Labeling Program Participant,

Effective January 18, 2010, the operation of the Child Nutrition (CN) Label Program shifted from the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), Food and Nutrition Service to the USDA, Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS), Fruit and Vegetable Program (FV), Specialty Crops Inspection Division (SCI Division). Under this framework, AMS performs the CN Label review services and charges a fee for each CN label reviewed. AMS invoices firm's accounts for each label that is reviewed once the service is performed.

Service Agreement

Applicants for the CN label review service will be charged a fee of $92.00 per hour for CN label review services, with a minimum charge of one hour per label. "Rush" label reviews will be assessed a fee of $184.00 for the first hour, and $92.00 for each additional hour of review time. After the first hour of service, payment for service will be assessed at increments of 15 minutes. By signing this agreement, the applicant for CN label review agrees to pay USDA, AMS, FV, SCI Division for the requested service within the due date specified on the invoice.
