

USDA, FNS wants more farmers markets (FM) and direct marketing farmers (DMF) to participate in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)! SNAP authorization lets you reach a larger customer base, increases access to fresh produce for low-income Americans, and keeps dollars in your community.

USDA, FNS helps markets and farmers join SNAP by providing:

- ◆ A simplified application form online, visit <http://www.fns.usda.gov/snap/store-farmers-market-application>
- ◆ No-Cost SNAP EBT equipment and services through our contractor, Farmers Market Coalition (FMC), visit <http://farmersmarketcoalition.org/programs/freesnapebt>
- ◆ SNAP Farmers Market Sign-Up Days
- ◆ Technical assistance with SNAP EBT

During a SNAP FM Sign-Up Day, market managers and farmers

To get authorized at a SNAP FM Sign-Up Day all you need to bring is your:

1. Social Security Card OR, for non-profits, Employer Identification Number (EIN)
2. Driver's license or other government photo ID
3. W-9 form (if receiving equipment through FMC)
